RAILROADS ACCEPT TAFT'S PROPOSAL

Injunction Suit Withdrawn and Increased Rates Will Not Be Imposed.

AWAIT NEW RAILROAD LAW

President of Western Lines and Other Officials Assembled in Conference at White House Yesterday—President's Views.

Washington, June 6.—A complete agreement between the government and the recently enjoined railroads of th Western Trunk Line Association was reached at a White House conference which lasted for more than four hours this afternoon.

The railroads represented agreed to withdraw all rate increases filed to be effective on or after June 1st, and agreed to file no more increases until the bill in Congress which gives the Interstate Commerce Commission power to investigate and suspend increases that are not justified, becomes a law and goes into effect.

The President thereupon stated that the administrations purpose in bringing the injunction suit had been accomplished and the suit would be discontinued. The discontinuance will not be entered, however, until after the new railroad law is signed.

The belief was expressed tonight that all of the other railroads of the country which have filed increased rates, or have such a plan under consideration, will abide by the agreement reached today with the railroads named as defendants in the recent suit.

There will be a conference at the White House tomorrow in which Presidents Brown, of the New York Central railroad; McCrea, of the Pennsylvania and other officials representing railroads in the eastern central territory will participate. That they will acquiesce in President Taft's proposition and hold up the proposed increases until after the new law becomes effective, is practically taken for granted here tonight.

Every one connected with today's conference seemed gratified over the outcome. All that President Taft has desired is that the Interstate Commerce Commission should have authority to investigate increases in rates to determine whether or not they are justified by prevailing conditions and are just to the shippers. This power is to be conferred under the new law.

The railroads on the other hand, it is pointed out, are to be relieved of embarrassing litigation, are assured of a "square deal" when their case is presented to the Interstate Commission, and are free to resume the contracts for improvements and extensions which they threatened to cancel had the court proceedings continued.

The new railroad bill contains a clause which gives it effect 60 days after being signed by the President. It will be necessary to make the provision as to the supervision of rates by the Interstate Commerce Commission immediately effective and for this reason, as President Taft indicated tonight, it will be necessary to send the bill to the conference.

Attorney General Wickersham, Secretary of State Knox, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel and Messrs. Knapp and Lane, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, participated in the conference. At the conclusion of the conference the following statement was issued:

E. P. Ripley, president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company; Walker D. Hines, acting chairman executive commitee Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company, Frederic A. Delano, president of the Wabash Company, and S. M. Felton, president of the Chicago Great Western Company, a committee representing the 24 railroad companies defendant in a suit brought by the government in Missouri in which Judge Dyer granted an injunction restraining increases in rates met the President and Attorney General today pursuant to a request sent to the President a few days since.

The President stated to these gentlemen at the outset that the purpose of the suit was to prevent the proposed rate increases (which, under the existing law, could not be investigated at all until after they had become effective) so as to preserve the status until the new statute could be passed and the commission should have the power to investigate rate advances as soon as announced and before becoming effective.

He stated further that he thought the railroad companies must withdraw the tariffs enjoined and all other tariffs filed by them effective on or after June 1st, 1910, and that none of them ought to file any new tariffs involving rate advances until the new law should be passed, assuming that it would be passed at the present session of Congress.

After conference the railroad companies announced that they would adopt the view expressed by the President and thereupon the President stated that if they did so his purpose in bringing the suit would be accomplished, and, such result being accomplished, he saw no occasion for pressing the suit and the same would be withdrawn.

The rate increases specified in the injunction suit against the railroads in the Western Association did not cover all of the increases that had been filed with the commission. The railroads today, however, agreed to withdraw all the increases that had been planned for June 1st, or after. There have been a number of increases put into effect during the last few months. These will not come under the agreement. For instance, the increased rates on live stock, effective last March, will not be affected. The important increases, however, and the ones of which the shippers chiefly complained, were those scheduled for June 1st and after.

The railroad presidents claimed they had been misrepresented as to their having been anything clandestine about their agreeing upon or filing new rates. They claimed they had sent written notices to the shippers and even had the receipts of certain of the shippers who had denied ever having received such notices. Finally, they declared that the increased rates had been filed in the same manner as the Interstate Commerce Commission had approved for the past ten years.

The railroad presidents told President Taft incidentally that they had been advised by their counsel that the government's injunction suits could not be sustained. The President replied that he was willing to take a chance as to that and he thought the best way out for the railroads, was for them to withdraw their increases. It was then that the settlement was reached.

MEXICAN UPRISING CAUSES BLOODSHED

Reign of Terror in Yucatan and Troops Are Rushed to Scene.

INDIANS RANSACKED TOWN

Battle Expected Between Insurgents and Government Forces—Trouble Over Indian Lands—Forty People Reported Slain.

Vera Cruz, Mex., June 6.—The most serious uprising with which the Mexican government has had to deal in a long time has occurred in the State of Yucatan and troops are being rushed to the disturbed area. In the meantime, reports which have reached here indicate that there has been much bloodshed and that the insurgents are preparing for a battle with the government forces which is sure to come soon.

The independent newspaper, El Dictamen publishes dispatches from Merdia, the capital of Yucatan to the effect that 40 persons were slain by the Maya Indians on Saturday. Further dispatches received here state that 5,000 of these Indian insurgents ransacked the town of Valladolid 95 miles to the Southeast of Merida, killing all the principal government employes, the chief of police and others They seized rifles and pistols and instituted a reign of terror. Many of the inhabitants of Valladolid are fleeing to Merida.

The gunboat Morelos has already left this port with 600 soldiers abroad, while the Yucatan gunboat Zaragaza is lying in the harbor ready to take a 1,000 additional troops, who are expected soon to arrive from the interior.

Railroad and telegraph communication between Medida and the zone of the trouble is now cut off. Twenty miles of the Yucatan railroad have been destroyed by the Indians. It is reported that many telegraph operators have been killed or are prisoners. Jose Politico, judge of criminal court, is among the dead.

The rebels are strongly entrenched in anticipation of the advance of the Federal troops. Maximiliano Ramirez Bonilla, the former rebel leader, and Colonel Victor Montenegro are said to be at the head of the uprising.

The towns of Tinum, Uayma and Tunkas, all between Merida and Valladolid have been attacked, but the reports say that the families of all the residents, except officials, have been unmolested. To what extent the insurgents pillaged or killed at these places has not yet been learned.

A strict censorship has now been established, and the original telegrams giving the first details of the uprising were sent before the government took charge of the news.

It is understood that the canse of the trouble is dissatisfaction on the part of the indian over the action of the government officials regarding lands, but the extent point of controversy has not been made clear in the reports. It is not thought that any Americans are involved.

RAILROADS COULD DEFY THE LAWS

Alleged "Joker" Permitting Rebating in Railroad Bill, Say Democrats.

AS PASSED BY THE SENATE

Senator Shively Claims Thet Certain Proviso Would Nullify Laws Prohibiting Rebates—Joint Conference on Bill.

Washington, June 6.—Democratic leaders in the House today discovered an alleged "joker" in the Senate railroad bill which they say would permit the railroads to engage in rebating without fear of prosecution. It is in the form of a five-line provision to that section of the existing law which prescribes a penalty of $250 for failure to quote a rate to a shipper on request or for misquoting a rate The proviso, which is said to nullify laws prohibiting rebates, was presented by Senator Shively, a Democrat, and is as follows:

"Provided, however, that notwithstanding anything in this section contained, any person or company suffering damage in consequence of any violation of any of the provisions of this section shall have the right to recover such damage by suit against the carrier in any court of competent jurisdiction."

The theory of the Democratic members of the House who pointed out this feature of the bill was that it would open the way for railroads to give rebates under the guise of paying damages to a shipper. Lawyers of the Senate, both Republicans and Democrats, ridiculed the suggestion and said that it probably was advanced to cast doubt upon the wisdom of accepting the Senate amendments to the railroad bill without a conference.

Representative Underwood, of Alabama, declared the Senate amendment would effectually restore to the railroad the power to grant rebates.

"The Standard Oil fine of $29,000,000 was imposed as the result of a misquoted rate," said Mr. Underwood. "If this section were to become a law, the railroads might misquote a rate to a shipper, and pay to him, as damages, anything they wished. The only penalty they would incur under the circumstances would be a fine of $250 and the payments in 'damages' might amount to millions.

"The shipper, of course, would not need to bring actual suit, as the railroad could confess the damages and pay the shipper. It wouldn't matter whether it was called damages or rebates, the effect would be the same."

Representative Sims, of Tennessee, a Democratic member of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, said that in his opinion, the Senate section would restore to the railroads the privilege of rebating.

"I do not want to say", said Mr. Sims, "that the Senate intended the section to read that way, but that is the effect of the provision."

The railroad bill probably will go to a joint conference committee representing the Senate and House. This had become fairly certain in the informal discussions in the House during the day, and appears inevitable in any event as the result of the conference at the White House between President Taft and the railroad presidents.

Since Saturday there has been a movement on foot to have the House agree to the Senate bill in its entirety and thus avoid a conference. The "insurgent" Republicans and Democrats have been representing as being strongly in favor of such a course. The regulars on the other hand have insisted that the bill needed smoothing out in several particulars.

Doubt arose today as to the degree of unanimity among the Democrats on the subject. It appeared that they had reached no decision as to their attitude, and it was evident from individual expressions that the minority party was badly divided on the question. Representative Champ Clark spent most of the afternoon trying to get a concensus of opinion from his fellow Democrats.

A conference lasting an hour or so was held in the Democratic cloak room between Senators Shively, of Indiana, and Hughes, of Colorado, and Representatives Clark, of Missouri, and Underwood, of Alabama. It was the opinion of those in the best position to know, that the Democrats would not vote in sufficient numbers to insure concurrence in the Senate amendments. The whole question was, however, thrown into a different status by the result of the White House conference.

RAILROAD CLAIMS BIG FRAUD LOSS

Illinois Central Sues Four Former Officers for an Accounting.

CONCERNS THAT PROFITED

Estimated Loss at $2,000,000 by Repair Work Through Conspiracy. Overcharges Alleged in Complaint in Court.

Chicago, June 6.—Charging that it has been defrauded of about $2,000,000 on repair work in a period of four years, the Illinois Central Railroad Company today filed suit in the Circuit Court for an accounting against four of its former officers.

The railroad company's bill, which alleges conspiracy to defraud, names the following men: O. S. Keith, former superintendent of transportation; Joseph E. Buker, former assistant superintendent of machinery; William Renshaw, former assistant superintendent of the machinery department, and John M. Taylor, former general storekeeper.

In connection with the charges, the Illinois Central road declares in its bill that these concerns profited in alleged overcharges on car repair work in the following amounts:

The Blue Island Equipment Company, $400,000; The American Car and Equipment Company, $100,000; Aosterman Manufacturing Company, $750,000 and The Memphis Car Company, $300,000; International Car Company.

The railroad also suits for an accounting against the West Pullman Car Company and against the American Car and Equipment Company.

The filing of the suits follows an investigation by the railroad company and numerous rumors of an alleged graft "ring" in the Illinois Central Railroad. High officers of the road have stoutly denied that there existed any trouble of this character.

The bill against the four former department heads alleges that the men entered into a conspiracy in June, 1906, and that, from that date until April, 1910, the railroad company was defrauded out of nearly $2,000,000. The defendants are alleged to have represented to the corporation that the company's repair work could be done more cheaply by independent concerns than at the railroad's own shops. When contracts wer given to certain independent concerns the bill charges, the railroad company began paying a long series of large overcharges from which certain superintendents are declared to have obtained thousands of dollars.

MUST SAY "FLOATED OYSTERS"

Ruling of Department of Agriculture in Regard to Oysters.

Washington, June 6.—In a decision issued today by the Department of Agriculture it was announced that the "floating" of oysters would be permitted by the Department if the water in which the floating was done, was of the same saline content as the water in which the oysters were grown.

According to the testimony given at the hearing of the oyster shippers at the department some time ago, this will not plump up the oyster and make it stay fat as in the case when it is floated in fresh water. The Department ruled that if oysters for interstate shipment are given a drink of fresh water, they must be marked on the vontainer "floated oysters"

If they are floated in water that is polluted they will be considered adulterated within the meaning of the pure food law.

BIG MOUNTAIN TIMBER DEAL

Vast Holding in Western North Carolina Reported Sold by Estate of Late Col. Murchison—W. Virginia Syndicate.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., June 6.—One of the biggest timber deals of some months became known tonight when it was learned that Lewis Carr and Joseph Keys, of West Virginia, representing a syndicate, had purchased the 12,000 acres of land in Mitchell and Yancey counties, known as the "Murchison boundary."

The purchase price was about $200,000. This is one of the finest boundaries of virgin timber in the whole western North Carolina and has belonged for years to Col. K. M. Murchison, of Wilmington. The line includes the top of Mount Mitchell, the highest point east of the Rocky Rountains.

The new owners the Mount Mitchell Lumber Company, purchased the property primarily for the timber and will shortly begin extensive operations. A railroad is now under process of construction from Boonford to Burnsville, Yancey county, and this it is said will be extended to penetrate the boundary. This will open up to the market a lot of timber land and furnish its freight to the C. C. & O. railroad.

The Murchisons purchased this property about 20 years ago at an almost nominal price. There is a rumor here tonight that a company plans to construct a Summer hotel on the top of the Black Mountain and also following a gradual grade from Overlook Mountain, near Asheville, to construct an automobile road to the top of Mt. Mitchell.

The tract is heavily timbered with spruce, oak, cherry, poplar and birch. The property stretches from the summit of Mitchell, down the eastern slope of the mountain to a point near the Toe river embracing a territory seven miles long and nine miles wide.

ATLANTA TO NEW YORK RUN.

First Stage Ended Last Night at Anderson, S. C.

Anderson, S. C., June 6.—The first stage of the good roads run from Atlanta to New York ended this evening at Anderson with nearly every one of the 62 starters on time. The run of 139 miles was made without serious mishap.

John Grant, of Atlanta, had a narrow escape from a serious accident. He was running his big car containing his family when he took a sharp curve at high speed. The car ran into a ditch and a front wheel was broken. The occupants were severely shaken but no one was hurt. A new wheel was sent from Atlanta and the car will continue in the run.

The parade of automobiles through the country districts brought farmers and their families from miles around and the road was lined the whole distance with enthusiastic country people. At Anderson the night control of the city was illuminated in honor of the visitors. The tourists will reach Spartanburg tomorrow noon and will be entertained by the people of that town. The night control will be at Charlotte, N. C.

Bristol, Tenn., June 6.—The trustees of Emery & Henry College today elected Dr. J. W. Perry, of Morristown, Tenn., to succeed Dr. R. C. DR. FEW PRESIDENT TRINITY Elected After Lengthy Session of Board of Trustees at Trinity Yesterday—Not Official, However. President's Report.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., June 6.—Dr. William Preston Few, former dean and professor of history was tonight elected president of Trinity College to succeed Bishop John C. Kilgo at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the college which adjourned a few minutes before midnight, after having been in session since 5 o'clock this afternoon with a recess of an hour and half for supper.

The official information as to the election of Dr. Few could not be obtained and the only verification of the election was through the personal expression of a member of the board of trustees. No information was obtainable in an official way and it was stated that the election of all the officers would be announced during the commencement exercises.

Twenty seven of the thirty six members of the board were present at the meeting tonight. This is the largest attendance upon a meeting of the Board of Trustees in the history of the college. The report of the president was submitted to the board. Aside from this information nothing would be given to the public tonight.

Dr. Few has been 14 years at Trinity being like his predecessor a native South Carolinian. His close connection with college made him the logical successor and but one ballot was cast for another. Dr. W. O. Crawford, of the chair of philisophy, becomes dean of the faculty, and S. B. Underwood is elected head master of Trinity Park school.

PASSENGER WAS KILLED.

Attempted to Jump From Moving Train—Heroism of Conductor.

Greenville, S. C., June 6.—Some excitement was caused among passengers on a Southern Railway train tonight just north of Toccoa, Ga., when an unidentified white man, bearing a ticket from Tucson, Ariz., to New York, in an effort to jump from a car window, was grabbed by a negro Pullman porter. The man's body was dangling through the window when the porter caught him by the feet, the result being that the man was literally brained by his head striking against the walls of the rocky cut through the train was passing. The porter was hurt about the head and shoulders, but he refused to loosen his grip till he saw the passenger was dead.

The man's body was taken to Toccoa and placed in charge of an undertaker. Search of his clothing failed to reveal his identity.

POSTAL BANK BILL COMES UP TODAY

Measure Expected to Glide Through House Without Amendment.

MINORITY REPORTS FILED

Representative Moon's Report of Strong Denunciation of the Legislation—Democratic Measure Will be Offered.

Washington, June 6.—The House Postal Savings Bank bill was put on the ways by the Committee on Postoffices and Postroads today and with everything greased for its final passage, is expected to glide through the House without a single amendment being tacked to it.

The Democrats of the committee filed two minority reports against the bill, one by Representative Moon, of Tennessee, inveighing against all postal savings bank legislation as unconstitutional and uwise and another by Representative Finley, of South Carolina, supported by the other Democratic member of the committee criticising the Republican bill and offering a Democratic measure as a substitute.

The bill will be called up in the House tomorrow unless all plans go wrong. The Rules Committee will be called to meet tomorrow morning to consider Chairman Weeks' resolution asking for a special rule with which to affect the passage of the bill and providing against all amendments. The rule owes eight hours general debate, and the offering of a single substitute, but permits no amendment.

The Democrats will fight the passage of this rule with all the vigor they can command. They will be supported by a number of "insurgent" Republicans, who are opposed to the passage of bills in the House without opportunity of amendment.

The Republicans claim to have enough votes to adopt the rule and pass the bill.

Representative Moon's report is a strong denunciation of the legislation. After asserting its unconstitutionality, he says:

"This bill in fact is but a means for the collection, control and centralization of the capital of the country. It is the innocent forerunner of the Central Federal bank for the control of all money with the power of contraction and expansion of the currency, deciding the fortunes of commerce and labor and monopolizing the banking interests of the country. It is one of the most deceptive and dangerous measures that has yet come before Congress whether so intended or not."

Mr. Moon says his criticism applies equally against the proposed Democratic substitute bill in the main.

The Democratic minority bill differs widely from the committee bill, but principally in the matter of the deposit of postal savings funds providing that the postal deposits shall be covered into the United States treasury, as a loan in the localities where the deposits originated. The Republican bill provides that 65 per cent. of the postal funds shall be so deposited.

STORM IN PENDER.

News General and Otherwise as Seen by Rocky Point Correspondent.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., June 6.—A terrific wind storm accompanied by rain, passed over this section at 2 o'clock this morning, wringing off large trees and limbs, leaving a widespread swath. It moved from a southwest to northeast direction and left signs wherever it went of wrecked fences. Only one building was moved—that of William Carter, of Lane's Ferry. The storm wrecked his large apiary by turning over hives, etc., and there was a hot time because the bees knew not their proper hives. Some wreckage in Rocky Point and Holly township. The wind must have attained a velocity of 75 miles an hour. Corn and other crops were not far enough advanced to be much damaged. The peach crop on Harrison Creek is now ripening. There was an abundance of ripe peaches from the 20th of May on. Pender county could get off the Mayflower and Sneed varieties before Georgia does. She got off first shipment June 1st. Pender got off first berries, beans, cukes and potatoes and with enough acreage could get off first peaches in the Old North State. I saw today trees loaded down with the celebrated "Greensboro", now ready to ship and of far superior flavor to the much vaunted Georgia fruit.

A mass meeting of Rocky Point citizens has been called for the 7th to endorse Hon. Chas. R. Thomas' course in Congress with a recommendation for his renomination at the coming convention.——A much-needed rain fell last night, laying the dust and reviving all kinds of vegetation. The bean growers in some instances plowed up crops too soon. Beans $1.50 to $2 per barrel.——Mr. James Walton, son of Mrs. Mag Walton, of Hampstead, was buried by a large concourse of friends at Harrison's Creek church yesterday. He had been telegraph operator and express agent at Folkstone and was down three weeks with typhoid fever.——Mrs. R. J. White, of R. F. D. No. 1, entered into rest Saturday, 3 P. Raleigh, N. C., June 6.—Raleigh defeated Wilmington 3 to 2 this afternoon in a game that should have been far better patronized. The Sailors' two runs were in the ninth through a beautiful three-bagger by Tydeman, after a single and an error by shortstop had allowed two men on bases. This tied the score. Raleigh came to bat and Jobson took first on balls and Simmons lined out a three-bagger that spelled defeat for the Sailors.

With the exception of a bingle to left by Simmons, for Raleigh, who was immediately caught napping on first and out, it was one, two, three for both teams in the first inning and in the second Mills started with a safety to right and was sacrificed by Doak but Klutz fanned and Burke flied to right. For Raleigh, after Richardson flied to centre, Hobbs singled to right. Phoenix fanned, Keating hit to short and both runners were safe on fumble, but McCormick flied to right. In the third Gilmore and Thompson flied to first and left and Cooper was out short to first. For Raleigh Jobson was out pitcher to first. Clemmons flied to left, was safe on muff but was caught trying second, Simmons singled to left and Prim flew to left.

Dubbs led the fourth with a single to left for Wilmington and after Tydeman had flied to left, stole second but Mills fanned and Dubbs was out on an attempt to purloin third. For Raleigh, after Richardson had flied to right, Hobbs singled to the same territory, but Phoenix whiffed and Keating flied to centre.

In the fifth Doak was out at first, Klutz second to first while Burke ethered. Raleigh: McCormick flied to left, Jobson out catcher to first, Clemmons drew a constitutional but Simmons hit to third, forcing Clemmons at second.

In the sixth, Gilmore fanned, Thompson fouled to first and Cooper to third. Raleigh's runs started after Prim fouled out to first when Richardson was given transportation and Hobbs swatted to the right garden for two bases, Phoenix fanning and Richardson scoring on Keating's safe bunt. McCormick was out second to first.

In the seventh Dubbs whiffed and Tydeman flew to left after which Mills again singled but Doak was out second to first. Raleigh: Jobson was out pitcher to first, Clemmons third to first, Simmons flied to left.

The eighth was rather exciting when after Klutz fanned, Burke was safe on error of short, advancing on Gilmore's out third to first. Thompson was then up and Burke was caught between second and third retiring the side. Prim started Raleigh with a single to right and was sacrificed by Richardson, scoring on another single by Hobbs, who went to third on the throw in but was caught attempting to score when Phoenix walked: Keating hit to short and Hobbs was caught trying to come home.

Hawkins batting for Thompson in the ninth drove one into right but was forced by Cooper third to second; Howard was out pitcher to first and Cooper, batting for Dubbs was safe at second, scoring later on Tydeman's screamer to left for three bases, scoring himself on Miller's single to left, while Doak was out second to first. With the score tied, after McCormick was out second to first, Jobson walked and after Clemmons had flied to second, Simmons made a drive to right for three bases that brought in the winning run.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fort Caswell, N. C., June 5.—It took the 79th Co., Cubs just one half of one inning, and the first inning at that, to twist the tails of the 19th Co., Tigers in the eleventh game of the championship race in the Caswell League baseball race and to make matters worse the bombardment took place before the critical gaze of the U. C. T. men, who came down from Wilmington to visit our post.

Stokel started on the mound for the Tigers, and oh, what a start, safe hits were so numerous that the outfield looked like the recipient of a meteoric shower, and seven runs crossed the plate before the spasm was over.

Kozelka took the firing line in the second for the luckless Tigers and pitched good ball, but too late and the final score was 9 to 2 in favor of the Teddy-bears, which gave the Tigers last place with a percentage of .285. The Cubs second with .385 and the Senators safely in the lead with a percentage of .867.

First Lieut. R. K. Greene, district adjutant, who has been on duty at this post for some two years, has been ordered to Fort Howard, Md., for duty, and will leave for his new station in a few days. Lieut. Greene is very popular with all the men here, who regret to see him go.

The new post telephone system is nearing completion and will be one of the most up-to-date systems in the country.

SOUTHERN GOLF ASSOCIATION.

Ninth Annual Tournament Being Held This Week in Atlanta.

Mr. R. H. Gwaltney, a member of the Cape Fear Golf Club and one of the best golfers in the South, left Saturday for Atlanta, Ga., where he will enter the ninth annual tournament of the Southern Golf Association, composed of practically all the clubs in the South. The tournament will be played over the links of The Atlanta Athletic Club, and the opening events take place today. Mr. Gwaltney has been entered as a "scratch" player, being one of five in this class, which means that he will have no handicap. He will also enter in the Southern Championship series, the events of which take place today. Mr. H. F. Smith, of Louisville, Ky., is president of the association and Mr. R. H. Baugh, of Montgomery, Ala., is secretary. Mr. Gwaltney's friends expect him to capture some of the honors at the tournament.

:-: ! "Snivels" ! :-:

Jobson didn't pass a man.

Mills singled the first time up.

Still a little of that butter-fingered work.

Raleigh clumped her bingles thrice, and they counted.

How about giving Carroll a trial at short? (2nd call!)

Hawkins pinched for Thompson in the ninth and hit safely.

What do you know about Rube Howard essaying the pinch-hittist?

Aren't you certain those Birdie adherents in Raleigh chirruped like magpies after the affair?

The good news comes that Luyster was not as badly hurt Saturday as first reports indicated.

Kelly, Rex, must have worn one of those silent laughs that have the utmost contempt for erasure.

Tough luck, Jack, that they should have gotten that run on you in the ninth, but forget it; we're with you.

Mills surely qualified with the timber, all right, flailing out three safeties out of four times up. Keep at it Pug, and the town's yours.

We never see any dope in the Goldsboro "Argus" these days. "What's the complaint, Colonel—aren't the Giants going good enough for you?"

Saturday sure was a hoodoo for pitchers, three getting laid out by pitched balls. Here's hoping a speedy recovery to each and every one.

Phoenix went through a club swinging exercise for the delectation of the Raleighites, churning three times. A walk probably saved him another whiff.

A Raleigh fan keeping an account of Hobbs' hits got excited and put down one too many, and his box score looked like the product of a tattoo factory.

Now that weeding out is going on, the management wants to be careful and not let the pruning knife run riot, and overdo things. There's such a thing as cutting too deep.

Hobbs had his batting lamps trimmed nicely, and peeled off three singles and a double. His mess-mate Simmons, to show there was no hard feeling, poked along with three.

It happens so regularly, we almost forgot to mention Tydeman's three-bagger. Speaking of having gold hoops on the digits and chimes upon the terminal members, Ty is certainly rigged out that same way.

In Sunday's "Boosts" appeared the line: "Wilmington had the nerve to sell this Guerrant." Not exactly, Mac; he beat the classic dust from his moccasins at his own solicitation. And the three bagger which called forth your remark is a novelty for Guerrant, for without gainsaying his ability to play a tasty third and cover all sorts of infield territory, its a cold fact that outside of bunting Gy doesn't shine with the locust.

We are indebted to the "News and Observer" dopist for the following tributes written after Saturday's game: "It comes hard to Raleigh, but really the entire league is glad to see the Sailors strengthening——Wilmington is a good ball town, and a winning team, or at least a good playing team—will bring out the sports—— Reports from Wilmington say that it was the only baseball seen there this season——Wilmington's first baseman (Hawkins) had twenty-one chances which he accepted. There's class to this. And he got a hit, too——That Tydeman, who previously to yesterday seemed to be the whole Wilmington team, got in his hit. He's a corker."

PENNANT RAISED AT WILSON

High-Heel Old Time at Wilson—Tobacconists Won From Railroaders in Score Two to Nothing—The game.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., June 6.—Excursion trains from Rocky Mount and Washington came in this afternoon heavily laden with good natured rooters to witness the game between the Railroaders and Tobacconists, and incidentally to gaze on the 1909 pennant as it was thrown to the breezes.

Hon. F. A. Woodard, vice president of the league, made a few appropriate remarks after which the procession was formed in front of the grandstand in the following order: The Washington Concert Band, Wilson's champion team, Miss Mamie Brasswell, of Rocky Mount; Miss Ella Hackney, of Wilson; who were followed by the Railroaders, of Rocky Mount. To inspiring music the line moved and circled around the pole in the left field. Everything in readiness the pennant was run up to the mast head by the young ladies named as the band struck up "Dixie". Guerrant started the score getting in the fourth, followed by Jacobs in the sixth. The score tells the story.

That Spelled Defeat for Goldsboro Giants—Not a Hit Until Eighth Inning—Clancy's Great Work—The Score.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 6.—Backed by fast support, Waymack shut out the Goldsboro Giants with one hit through first base, allowing none until the eighth inning. Till then but one Giant reached first and none second base. The game was exceedingly tight until the seventh; then the Highlanders slammed out five singles and a double in their last two innings. J. Clancy's work was exceptionally brilliant.

"As far as I know there is nothing in it. I have not been approached regarding the matter, and can see no reason why Mr. Fogel should be relieved of the management."

Charges and Counter Charges in Wake Campaign—Sixth District Judicial Convention—National Guard.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 6.—The charges that have been circulated for some days throughout Wake county by the "regulars" in the strenuous campaign on against the "reformers" or "insurgents" for the June Democratic primaries, that Dr. E. W. Sikes, "reform" nominee for the State Senate, is a National Republican and wilfully failed to vote the county Democratic ticket at the last election is to be answered by Dr. Sikes in a campaign speech that he is scheduled to deliver Tuesday night according to an announcement just made by him.

The answer of Dr. Sykes is being awaited with exceptional interest. The two factions have rather "split even" on charges that have been made in the same connection against I. H. Lynn, "reform" candidate for county commissioner, that he affiliated with the Republican club of his section last campaign and at the election voted the Republican ticket. Mr. Lynn came out in an announcement that the charge was totally false. On the other hand the "regulars" came back with a card from A. M. Thompson, a well known neighbor of Mr. Lynn, who made affidavit that he saw Lynn taking part in a Republican club and that in serving as poll holder he had occasion to look at the ticket voted by Lynn at the last election and that it was Republican.

B. S. Skinner, for 21 years superintendent of the farm at the A. & M. College, has resigned and will become general manager of the State Sanitorium for Tuberculosis at Montrose, Cumberland county. The management of the college farm has been placed completely in the hands of Prof. Newman of the chair of agriculture.

The call has been issued for the Democratic executive committee of the sixth judicial district to meet in Raleigh Thursday, June 9th. The members are W. C. Monroe, Wayne; C. M. Muse, Harnett; W. M. Sanders, Harnett, and W. B. Jones, Wake. The date for the district convention to meet and choose between Frank Daniels, of Wayne, and J. C. Clifford, Harnett, as the candidate for judge, is to be fixed.

The Wake county Republican executive committee has decided to hold precinct primaries June 30th and hold the county convention August 6th for naming delegates to the State, Congressional and Judicial conventions and also to nominate the county and legislative tickets on that date. Prominent members of the party declare that the Republicans are preparing to take every possible advantage of the wide breach in the Democratic ranks in Wake and that they have strong assurance of electing their county and legislative tickets.

Official notice comes from the War Department to National Guard headquarters that Capt. Marcus B. Stokes, of the Tenth Infantry, is detailed to attend the encampments of the Second and Third Infantry, North Carolina Guard at Morehead, Camp Glenn, as inspector and instructor. The Third Infantry will be in camp July 6th to 13th and the Second Infantry July 19th to 26th.

Adjutant General Armfield went today to Morehead to have a look over Camp Glenn to see just what the conditions are and what will be needed to put the camp grounds and the rifle range in condition for the encampments.

CRAVEN SUPERIOR COURT.

One Week Term for Criminal Cases. Night School Organized.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., June 6.—A one-week term of Craven Superior Court will convene next week for the trial of criminal cases, Judge Peebles presiding. Up to the present time about 80 cases have been docketed, several of the number for serious offenses.

An innovation in church work has been introduced in this city by Rev. A. C. Schuler, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, who, in connection with his other work, is operating a free school at night, an employment bureau being connected therewith. On the principle that Christianity should be practical and serve all the needs of his people, he is organizing his work along all lines in Newbern. In a sermon at the Tabernacle Sunday he declared that the old-time methods of church work has demonstrated the need of reconstruction and that the church—the real, living, active church—of the future would be a church of the masses and not the classes. The curse of Christianity, he declared, had been formalism and ritualism and the church of today must see the man in the street, get close to the common people, measure arms with sin, and feed and clothe and educate along with the preaching of the word of God as the salvation of the world. His ideas concerning practical Christianity do not detract from the evangelistic spirit of his teaching, there having been more than 40 additions to his church within the past six weeks.

Particulars of the special levy are not known but the fact is sufficient to inspire every loyal son of Pender to the greatest enthusiasm.

THE STATE BONDS.

Better Endure the Ills Than Fly to Others.

The Morning Star:—It is little less than amazing that the Governor of North Carolina would even suggest the idea of North Carolina State bankers taking over securities or a bond issue for the State of $3,000,000 when the same securities had been turned down by the leading financiers and capitalists of the country. Banking is essentially a concrete proposition in which sentimentalities have no place. I dare say Governor Kitchin would not suggest for a moment that either the Virginia or South Carolina State bankers float North Carolina's $3,000,000 bond issue; therefore, to ask the North Carolina banks to float this bond issue is nothing more nor less than appealing to a man's State pride upon a purely sentimental issue.

In other words, is it a business proposition for the banks of North Carolina to accept securities that the leading financiers of the country had turned down? Now let's look at this matter from another standpoint. Suppose the North Carolina banks accept these four per cent. refunding bonds and in the meantime the country should find itself face to face with a financial panic, such as we had in 1907 and 1908, and the same banks should perchance find it necessary to realize money on these securities, would they not have to take them back and up with the same financiers and capitalists who had before turned them down? This is indeed a rather serious proposition for the bankers of North Carolina to take hold of and I trust that they will handle this matter with that care and precaution that a wise business and discriminating judgment would dictate, when they meet the Governor in Raleigh on the 8th.

No man is prouder of his native State, her glorious past, her grand present and bright prospect for the future than myself. No man would go farther to the front or die in the last ditch quicker than myself to shield and defend her good name, but it were better for all concerned that we have only one mistake to make amends for than two, and for the banks of this State to take up that which they would not consider for a moment were South Carolina or Virginia substituted for North Carolina is a grave and serious problem for them to solve before doing so and better a thousand times that the Legislature meet and provide the necessary ways and means for brooking the present difficulties than making another mistake along this line. In other words, if the State's credit has been damaged don't let's damage the credit and standing of our banking interests. Z. W. WHITEHEAD.

Nashville, N. C., June 6.—Two districts in North Whitaker's township, Nash county, voted a local tax Saturday for schools. In one district the vote was unanimous and only nine votes were cast against the tax in the other district. Seven districts in the county have voted a tax this year and the county commissioners levied it today.

IT WAS A HOT OLD MEETING.

Boisterous Time at Meeting of City Fathers of Wilson.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Wilson, N. C., June 3.—A riot at a baseball game is nothing compared with a meeting of the Board of City Aldermen of the town of Wilson last night if Madam Rumor is to be credited.

This writer regrets very much that he was not present, but the fact of the matter is that there has been so many meetings of that august body of late to regulate the near beer license—which is not, and it is presumed will remain one thousand dollars—that the meeting of last evening escaped our notice. Had we been present the clean hits, bunts, balls and spectacular plays would have been carefully jotted down. But being absent, will tell of the strenuous times had at that meetinf, as they are repeated on our streets.

Parties who were passing the city hall when the meeting was in progress describe it as worse than an old-time Republican pow-wow; others say that Wilson's new chief of police had the opportunity to make good, that he should have reported the whole bunch as disturbers of the peace—but he didn't.

The thousand dollar license for the privilege of dispensing near beer seems to be the cause for the friction. The dealers were reprsented by a gntleman of the legal fraternity who asked that the aldermen reconsider and make the tax only five hundred dollars, but it was no go. Then the wrangle began when Mr. H. G. Connor, Jr., tendered his resignation as city attorney, saying (as report goes) "that the confidence that should exist between the board and himself was not what it should be." Whereupon Alderman Killette let out a long drive to right field, retorting: "The reason why I have lost confidence in you is because of your lining up with the red light and liquor element." The attorney then tossed up a spit ball, but the alderman from the "Bloody Fifth" failed to connect, saying: "You know, sir, you were elected by anti-dispensary votes and since that time you have done nothing but back cap and vote against their wishes."

While all this was going on Mayor Briggs was "warming up," and when the attorney had finished "at the bat" he too "got in the game" and swatted the alderman, reminding him of the active part he took in trying to get him impeached as mayor of the town. There were numberless other bouquets handed out after which the meeting broke up and the "city dads" and those who were fortunate enough to witness the stunts repaired to their several homes and dreamed of other events yet to be pulled off.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

Many Women who are Splendid Cooks

dread having to prepare an elaborate dinner because they are not sufficiently strong to stand over an intensely hot coal range. This is especially true in summer. Every woman takes pride in the table she sets, but often it is done at tremendous cost to her own vitality through the weakening effect of cooking on a coal range in a hot kitchen.

It is no longer necessary to wear yourself out preparing a fine dinner. Even in the heat of summer you can cook a large dinner without being worn out.

New Perfection
WICK BLUE FLAME
Oil Cook-stove

Gives no outside heat, no smell, no smoke. It will cook the biggest dinner without heating the kitchen or the cook. It is immediately lighted and immediately extinguished. It can be changed from a slow to a quick fire by turning a handle. There's no drudgery connected with it, no coal to carry, no wood to chop. You don't have to wait fifteen or twenty minutes till its fire gets going. Apply a light and it's ready. By simply turning the wick up or down you get a slow or an intense heat on the bottom of the pot, pan, kettle or oven, and nowhere else. It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot, drop shelves for coffee, teapot or saucepan, and even a rack for towels. It saves time, worry, health and temper. It does all a woman needs and more than she expects. Made with 1, 2, and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner sizes can be had with or without Cabinet.

S. S. S. A REAL CURE FOR BLOOD DISEASE

S. S. S. is a real cure for Contagious Blood Poison because it is a real blood purifier. We all realize that this disease is a specific blood infection of the most powerful nature, the virus of which so thoroughly poisons the corpuscles of the circulation that its symptoms are manifested over almost the entire body. First comes a tiny sore or pimple, then the mouth and throat ulcerate, the glands in the groin swell, the hair begins to fall out, skin diseases break out on the body, sores and ulcers appear, and even the bones ache with rheumatic pains. It is reasonable to believe that in a blood poison so powerful as this that only a blood purifier can have any permanent good effect. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and by thoroughly cleansing the blood of every particle of the insidious virus makes a permanent and lasting cure of Contagious Blood Poison. It does not hide or cover up the disease in the system but it entirely removes the last trace of its destructive germs. If you are suffering with this disease S. S. S. will cure you because it will cleanse your blood and enrich its health-promoting corpuscles. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and is a medicine so absolutely safe and certain in its results, that everyone may cure themselves at home, and be assured the cure will be permanent and lasting. Home Treatment book containing much valuable information for successful treatment, sent free to all who write.

The comet? Oh, the comet has gone, but the trail of the candidate is here.

Every editor has the prerogative of advising Congress if he wants to but Congress needn't take the advice if it can get along without it.

Bob Phillips, of the Greensboro News, must hob-nob with the optimists. His merry paragraphs indicate that he has no grouchy days.

Because the Hon. Tom Watson has returned to the Democratic party it is no sign that he won't do the party as much harm in it as he would out of it.

The malefactors who are able to get along without malefacting should quit the business. The thing has gotten to be disreputable, even if very few malefactors are wearing stripes in the penitentiaries.

When a disgruntled politician or a political sorehead brings in a bill of indictment it is not necessarily a true bill. The motive and the axe to grind ought to be considered along with all allegations of an objugatory nature.

The esteemed and sententient Charlotte Evening News remarks: "Let no one be deluded. North Carolina does not wish to return to the wet column." Somebody must have been throwing a wet blanket on North Carolina's efforts to keep dry.

Quoth the Charlotte Observer: "The South must remain solid,' declares the Pensacola Journal. Oh, now, don't be so imperious about it. You might rub the South the wrong way." There isn't any wrong way on that score. The South will remain solid unless her self-respect peters out.

Any candidate who is not clean is pretty apt to get "cleaned up" in this day of civic righteousness. This thing of meeting popular approval now is a great incentive for a man to watch his corks and make a record that will need no explanation and not a bit of whitewash.

Says the Baltimore Sun: "The Emperor William is to get a raise of $5,000,000 a year, and no doubt he deserves it." If the Kaiser does not know what to do with his money, all he has to do is to 'phone the Colonel who can tell any potentate exactly how to govern his colonies or precisely how to milk ducks.

"What is hospitality?" inquires a contemporary. Hospitality is the nice treatment you receive when you are wanted or are welcome. It depends on who you are, what your standing is and what your business is. Hospitality and the cold shoulder can be extended alternatively by the same people or the same communities. It depends.

Some of our highly esteemed contemporaries presume to express the sentiment of the State on certain matters. No editor knows the sentiment of the people of a State of North Carolina's magnificent proportions. It will take an election to determine just exactly what North Carolina stands for on any question. Editors can express the sentiments which they hope are those of the State.

Commander Peary has been received in audience by King George of Great Britain and also of Canada and other large portions of the Earth. Surely the King did not know that Gov. Brown, of Georgia, had set the precedent of slamming the door in the Arctic explorer's face. How in the world did Peary keep the British ruler from knowing that the Georgia governor did not regard him as a proper person to be recognized?

NO BOSS UNLESS WANTED.

Referring to John A. Fox, New York's new State Democratic chairman, the Greensboro Telegram says:

"The new chairman of the Democratic party in New York State declares that he won't be bossed. Well, that's good Democratic doctrine as far as it goes."

The trouble with most of the bosses is that they are not bossed but that they boss the balance of us. We should presume that what the New York Democrats want from the New York boss is a guarantee that he will not give them a good imitation of the bossism which has been rather common up that way as well as elsewhere.

The political boss and bossism do not amount to near as much in this country as the noise made about such conditions. No man can be boss and no people can be bossed unless they are willing to submit to it. Subserviency in party circles—and er-er, in the home circles—is because of the willingness of the bossed. The weak can have it rubbed into them and have it lorded over them, but there is no excuse for a real healthy specimen of individual or vigorous and independent aggregation of individuals for complaining of bossism. Those who are bossed lack spunk. It is because they have no courage and manhood. The real spunky, independent and courageous man is not submissive, unless he hasn't got sense enough to know when he is bossed and having the wool pulled over his eyes. A great many men have plenty of courage but they cannot see any further than their noses. In other words, they are victims of partisan blindness and wouldn't know a boss if they saw him.

The reason why people are bossed is because they don't insurge or do not have sense enough to recognize the psychological moment for insurging. The man who is not willing to stand hitched is going to kick, and the man who won't stand for it will face you with defiance. The mollycoddle will "give in," but the real man can put the boss out of business whenever the boss goes too far. There isn't any use of complaining of bossism when you can insurge and put a stop to it. When the boss knows he will have to meet you on the mat or take to the ring with you, he will cease to be either bigoted or militant. He will be pretty apt to come down from his perch and eat out of your hand. However, if people are willing to be bossed the boss will crack his whip. Nobody is bossed unless he wants to be or is in a position where he can't help himself.

The cry of bossism is ridiculous when the remedy is always at hand. For instance, Uncle Joe was only a boss because he was permitted to be a boss. The Republican majority was responsible for all the bossism that Uncle Joe ever practiced, because they wanted him to boss and stood for it. They could have made Uncle Joe good whenever they took a notion to look him in the face and say "thus far and no farther." If there was anything terribly wrong in Uncle Joe's bossism there is no use to blame it on him, because any man with discernment will know where to saddle the blame—right on the shoulders of a venal, truckling or cowardly majority. They permitted it and wanted it, or they could have put an end to it any day. The bossism of Uncle Joe was tolerated so long because he was backed up in it and had his willing accomplices. Whenever Uncle Joe's tactics could not longer be endured some members of his party, who had more spunk and courage than his willing tools, insurged and with the aid of an ever belligerent lot of Democrats they slightly trimmed up the autocratic Speaker. That is, they thought they did, but Uncle Joe winked the other eye and by permission of the majority is exercising his power in a round about way instead of in his former bold and triumphant manner. If Uncle Joe has really been called down and cooled off it has been because of the insurgents and Democrats who couldn't stand for his tactics any longer. However, we infer that Uncle Joe's bossism was more or less benevolent, because whenever he goes to celebrate his birthday all hands join in congratulating the "tyrant" because he was born. When the whole bunch can kiss the hand that smote them it proves to Uncle Joe that his bossism was not so galling as it was made to appear. It all goes to show that we are bossed only when we are willing and when we are satisfied to endure it instead of putting it out of business. When we can tolerate the boss, bossism sits rather lightly on us, so we take it for granted that Uncle Joe's bossism is of a character that does not prevent him from being tolerated as a Czar.

Bossism that con be tolerated or condoned evidently is not terribly outrageous. We repeat that we are bossed because we are willing. When we insurge and don't stay insurged it doesn't amount to much of a kick against bossism. Therefore, the cry of bossism is very largely ridiculous when we go on enduring it. To insurge and then fall back instead of standing our ground is to march up the hill and then march down again. Nevertheless, we can put any boss out of business when the crowd is not willing to stand for him.

SAVE THE STATE'S CREDIT.

North Carolinians who desire to aid in saving their State's credit and at the same time make a good investment, can do so by purchasing some of the new State bonds which bear 4 per cent interest and run 40 years. State Treasurer B. R. Lacy advertises that he will again open bids for these bonds at 12 o'clock noon, next Friday, June 10th. Letters or telegrams sent to the State Treasurer today and tomorrow will reach him in time to be listed among the bids.

Under the act of the General Assembly the new bonds cannot be sold at less than par, so a bid at par or above will be received. The difficulty which the State has experienced in floating its bonds was because of the restrictions which the Legislature put upon their sale, the bond act having been passed at a time when it was believed that there would be no trouble in selling North Carolina's gilt-edge securities at par. However, the comparatively low rate of interest and the continuing distress in the money markets, as a result of the panic and a flood of new issues all over the country, has made it impossible to float all the new bond issue of $3,430,000, thus bringing great embarrassment to Governor Kitchin's administration at Raleigh. The bids recently received at par or above par, were not sufficient to take up the issue, so there yet remains to be sold $2,211,000. If this remainder of the issue will be taken up by next Friday it will prevent the extra session of the General Assembly which has been called by Governor Kitchin for June 14th to relieve a serious situation.

The new bond issue was authorized by the Legislature for the purpose of taking up an old issue of $3,427,000 of North Carolina 4 per cent bonds which mature July 1st, 1910. This means that the State has a debt of that size due in three weeks and unless arrangements are made to meet the obligation it will seriously injure the State's credit.

It is hoped that the bids will be sufficient by Friday to save the day, but certainly it is a close call. It strikes us that the time in which the bids have been advertised for has not been long enough to give investors an opportunity to put in bids. The decision of the Supreme Court touching these bonds was also too late to do much good, and we regret that the dissenting opinion in the case was such as to seriously imperil the credit of the State at a time when confidence was needed more than a display of legal lore accompanied by side remarks that were entirely out of place, even in a dissenting opinion, were it ever so correct and the majority of the court were in error. However, that is all passed, and as President Cleveland once remarked it is a condition and not a theory which North Carolina now has to face.

Refering again to that unsold balance of $2,211,000, of bonds, it is hoped that all the holders of old bonds will bid for new ones. If each holder of the old bonds will bid, the balance of $2,211,000 will be over-subscribed. The State Treasurer announces that he will accept the old bonds as cash. A prompt exchange of these bonds in this way will be a profit to the investor and make unnecessary the convening of the General Assembly. The new bonds will be a good investment, for there is hardly any doubt that as soon as the world-wide depression in the bond market is relieved, these new bonds will go to a good premium. These bonds, it must be remembered, run 40 years and are non-taxable, either in the hands of individuals or banks. Such an opportunity to make a gilt edge investment occurs only once in a life time.

We do not know to what extent, if any, the State makes deposits in the banks of the different sections of the State, but it strikes us that if more of the banks were made depositories it would be an element of strength to the State Treasury. Such banks could invest more of their surplus in these bonds and also aid very materially in placing the State bond issues among their clients and correspondents.

There is no reason why every bond which the State is now seeking to place should not be taken by North Carolinians. At last accounts the savings deposits in North Carolina banks footed up many millions of dollars, so that an investment of $3,430,000 the amount of the present bond issue, would not make much of a drain on the aggregate savings deposits in the State. These savings deposits draw only 4 per cent interest, while savings invested in 4 per cent bonds would draw that much in interest and at the same time the bonds would not have to be listed for taxation. It should be borne in mind that one advantage of having savings invested in bonds is that the holders would be in possession of good securities which they could deposit as collatteral and borrow money if any emergency should make it necessary. State bonds would make savings absolutely safe and their value as colatteral and their exemption from taxation would make them a desirable investment.

The money of North Carolinians invested in State bonds would keep the interest at home and it would add to our circulation and per capita wealth. Suppose that the State were to place its entire issue of $3,430,000 bonds in New York. The interest on the issue for 40 years would be $5,488,000 which would make a drain upon North Carolina to that very considerable extent, whereas, if that interest were paid out in North Carolina it would be kept at home and find its way into banks and get into circulation. Every dollar that is kept in North Carolina makes the State that much better off and makes our aggregate wealth just that much greater. The savings of a people represent their surplus and that surplus invested in good home securities would greatly strengthen the financial situation in North Carolina.

Those countries are richest which keep their money at home where it contributes to industrial production and the development of the country's resources. The country which becomes a producer, a seller and a loaner makes the ideally independent country. France is a notable example of that condition. French bond issues are always largely over-subscribed by her own people, and that country furnishes an illustration of prosperity that is on a solid basis, generally free from the frequent and periodical panics experienced in this country under a boastful Republican government that is too bigoted to observe much less acknowledge its own blunders and incapacity. Frenchmen in this country are so few that they are a curiosity. The prosperity of France is the reason that so few French people are found among the immigrants which are coming to this country in such numbers as to almost startle our people. France keeps her money at home. She is, therefore, a producer as well as a money loaner and that keeps her people from emigrating.

This emergency in North Carolina finances affords us a fine opportunity to learn a lesson.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Editor Bob Deal is to introduce the "Wilkes step" at the dance planned for the editors. From all the advance information possible to obtain, it is to be a cross between a near Salome and a Rowan county shuffle.—Charlotte News.

The Chattanooga Times suggests that "while they are about it the government officials might undertake to equalize rates and make them to bear equitably on all sections." There will be no heartier second to this motion anywhere than in North Carolina.—Charlotte Observer.

Governor Vance said, "You can fool some of the people some of the time, and some of the people all of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."—Raleigh Democrat. Senator Vance said many good and true things deserving of remembrance and quotation, but Abraham Lincoln is entitled to the credit of originating the above sage remark.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

For unmitigated, undiluted and all pervading gall commend us to Editor Smith, of the Greensboro News. He has the nerve to criticise the State bond issue when it is a matter known of all men that no breath of scandal was ever connected with the State and its bonds save that breathed by such members of his own party as the Butlers, Carlisles, etc.—Charlotte News.

Observes the Statesville Landmark: "The Hon. Marion Butler, practicing lawyer at Washington, is busying himself with North Carolina Republican politics. He is sending a circular about the State calling on Republicans to elect anti-machine men—men opposed to the present State organization—to the State convention. Butler is very much opposed to the present organization, probably because he wants to control matters himself; and doubtless hopes, in the event the organization can be overthrown, to land in a commanding position. The Landmark wishes the Republicans joy of Butler. They welcomed him with much enthusiasm when he was making trouble for the Democrats, and they have earned all the trouble he gives them." Just so. Although Butler's apsotacy was in a great measure responsible for two Democratic defeats in this State the party played in rare good fortune when he left it. His was a rule or ruin policy and his leadership was invitation to the conservative element of the State to leave the Democratic party. With The Landmark we wish the Republicans joy of Butler.—Salisbury Post.

It will be two years before the State elects Governor Kitchin's successor, and in Virginia Governor Mann is in the first year of his term, but none the less there will be politics enough in this neighborhood to meet all demands save those of the most extreme. In South Carolina, practically the entire body of office-holders will be selected with the exception of United States Senator, and several lively contests are scheduled for the Summer's campaign. Nor is North Carolina entirely free from political worries. The Democrats will make every effort to regain the three districts lost two years ago, while the Republicans will leave no stone unturned to add to their number. In addition, both parties have several rather important little squabbles to settle in primaries before facing the general election. One of the warmest of these latter, so far as the Democrats are concerned, centers around the opposition to the renomination of Representative H. L. Godwin, of the sixth district. Several prominent competitors have announced themselves, and are working hard. The Fayetteville Index is out for Mr. Godwin's scalp, alleging that he has proven himself unable to measure up to his opportunities. Likewise the Scottish Chief devotes a column editorial to a certain lawsuit in which the incumbent of the seat was employed as counsel and in which his attitude and actions highly displeased the Chief. Taking it by and large, it seems improbable that State politics editors will furnish the public with adequate entertainment for many a long and turbulent month to come.—Charlotte Observer.

Ex-Senator Marion Butler, of North Carolina, who figured conspicuously in the politics of that State 14 years ago and landed a berth in the Senate for one term, is now sending out from Washington a circular letter to Republicans urging them to select anti-machine Republicans as delegates to the coming State convention. This action on the part of Butler has given rise to the suspicion that he is endeavoring by overthrowing the existing Republican organization in North Carolina to bring about a new political alignment and have himself chosen to be the Moses who is to lead the party out of the wilderness in which it is now hopelessly wandering. It is natural inference that Butler's activity at this time and his declaration of war on the organization faction is an effort to regain his own former power in Republican councils in the State. Leaving the Democratic party, Butler became a Populist, first and, through fusion with the Republican party at the time he succeeded, together with ex-Senator (now Judge) Jeter C. Pritchard in welding these elements together into a fusion which dominated the State and subjected it to misrule for several years. Mr. Butler is a man of ability and is well versed in all the arts of politics Not having been so fortunate as his associate fusion leader, Mr. Pritchard, in landing a life tenure Federal position, he is doubtless striving to win an office at home through a revolution in his own party. He is an insurgent for his own benefit. With all his ability and skill as an organizer and a disorganizer, we seriously doubt whether Butler can succeed in his effort to dominate the Republican party in North Carolina. He will encounter the hostility not alone of the Republican organization, but likewise of the Democratic press of the State, which is almost solidly arrayed against him. His attempt to re-enter the politics of the State, whether successful or not, will certainly add interest to the fight.—Danville (Va.) Register.

TRAVELERS LINGER AT BEACH

Many of the Visitors Left Yesterday, But Some Still Remain—Expressions of Thanks—Press Comment.

Many of the traveling men here last week for the fourth annual meeting of the Grand Council of the Carolinas find it far more difficult to break away from Wrightsville Beach and return to their respective duties than they ever supposed would be the case, and as a result there are a number of representative "knights of the grip" still at the beach hotels.

A large number of the visitors came up yesterday afternoon and left for home on the afternoon and evening trains. Not a few declared that heretofore they spent their vacation period at other seaside resorts, but this year Wrightsville Beach "for theirs."

There is no question but that the meeting here was the greatest since the organization of the Grand Council and never before were the U. C. T.'s so elaborately entertained. They all return to their home singing the praises of the hospitality and generosity of the Wilmington people and with admiration for the members of Cape Fear Council, a small band of travelers, who planned and executed the elaborate programme with such precision. Mr. W. O. Page, the Senior Councilor, and Mr. L. H. Burnett, the secretary and treasurer, of Cape Fear Council, No. 374, expressed their personal appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the people generally of Wilmington in making the stay of the visitors such a delightful one.

At a meeting of the committee which had in charge the arrangements for the convention, the following was unanimously adopted:

"At a called meeting of the committees having in charge arrangements for the entertainment of the Grand Council of the Carolinas, U. C. T.'s, it was unanimously agreed that this means be taken to publicly express their appreciation to the members of the Board of Aldermen, the Board of Audit and Finance, and all of those who so liberally contributed financially, towards making the occasion the grand success it was.

"We also wish to express our thanks and appreciation to the proprietors of the Bijou Theatre, who admitted all the visitors free of charge; to the Cliff Weil Cigar Co., of Richmond, Va., The American Cigar Co., of New York, The Geo. L. Storm Co., of New York, for their liberal contributions of cigars; to the Hanover Seaside Club, Atlantic Yacht Club, Carolina Yacht Club, and the Wilmington Light Infantry, for the courtesies extended the visitors; to the Brotherhod of Railway Clerks, who so kindly tendered the use of their rooms for the use of the Grand Council, while in business session.

"To the following gentlemen: Messrs. C. W. Polvogt, J. H. Rehder, Geo. Honnet, I. Shrier, and Wilmington Motor Car Co., for the use of their automobiles in the parade.

"And we wish especially to extend our thanks to the Tidewater Power Co., for the many courtesies shown us, and the most excellent transportation given the visiting U. C. T.'s, their ladies and friends.

"And right here, we desire to especially thank, and offer our congratulations to Mr. Edgar Hinton, manager of the Seashore Hotel, for the excellent dinner and the perfect service rendered, also for the attentions shown the visitors.

"And last, but not least, do we wish to extend our thanks to the press, for their tireless efforts, kind expressions, and hearty co-operation, which contributed so largely to the success of the occasion. "J. S. FUNCHESS,

"Chairman Executive Committee.

Moonlight Excursion Thursday.

A delightful moonlight excursion, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, has been planned for Thursday evening on the steamer Wilmington. Some interesting features have been planned in connection with the boat ride and the evening will be spent most pleasantly. The steamer leaves Market street dock at 8 P. THE DREDGE GALVESTON.

Coming to Wilmington to Take Place of Dredge Cape Fear.

The suction dredge Galveston left the port of Galveston, Texas, several days ago for the Cape Fear river to take the place of the dredge Cape Fear, which was recently sent to Beaufort, N. C., for work in the harbor at that place. The dredge was secured through the United States Engineer's office in this city. It is understood that the Galveston will begin dredging on the outer Cape Fear bar upon arrival. The dredge is considerably larger than the Cape Fear and will be placed in service here for an indefinite period.

ITCHING IRRITATION.

Worst Form of Skin Trouble Quickly Cured by Inexpensive Treatment.

When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting greasy ointment. Try Hokara, a pure and simple skin food, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so cleanly that it does not soil the linen.

Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft white and beautiful is almost miraculous.

Not only are minor skin troubles, like pimples, blackheads, ache, barber's itch, etc., quickly cured, but the worst ulcers or cases of salt rheum or eczema are cleaned and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that any one may try Hokara at small expense, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. are selling a liberal sized jar at 25 cents, and in addition guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it. Larger size 50 cents.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

STATE UNDERWRITERS MEET

Thirteenth Annual Meeting to be Held in Greensboro Wednesday and Thursday—Wilmingtonians Will Attend.

Col. Walker Taylor will leave tonight for Greensboro where he will attend the 13th annual meeting of the North Carolina Fire Underwriters' Association which will be held Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The association met at Wrightsville Beach last year and was well attended. Among others who will probably attend from Wilmington is Mr. James Owen Reilly, the well known real estate and insurance agent.

The officers of the association are: President, R. W. Murray, Greensboro; first vice president, W. B. Strachan, Salisbury; second vice president, Col. John VanB. Metts, of Wilmington; secretary and treasurer, John M. Harrell, High Point. Col. Taylor, of this city, is chairman of the executive committee, which position he has filled with conspicuous ability for a number of years, and the following are the other members: A. H. Galloway, Winston-Salem; Francis Womack, Reidsville; Thomas Griffith, Charlotte; Ernest Doans, Wilson.

The first session of the convention will be held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at which time the address of welcome in behalf of the Greensboro local agents will be made by Thos. G. Beall, Esq., and the address in behalf of the City of Greensboro will be by Judge N. L. Eure, of the Municipal court. The response will be by Mr. Francis Womack, of Reidsville. This will be followed by the roll call, president's annual address, secretary and treasurer's report and appointment of committee on president's address. At the afternoon session, which will convene at 2:45 o'clock, the committee on the president's address will make report and the association will hear an address on "Fire Insurance as a Commercial Asset," by Col. John F. Bruton, of Wilson. This will be followed by an open discussion. At 4:30 o'clock the visitors will board special chartered cars at the Southern Railway station for a visit to Guilford Battle Ground by invitation of the Dixie Fire Insurance Company and the Original Four Greensboro Fire Insurance Companies. The party will return to Greensboro late in the afternoon and at 9:30 P. M. there will be an informal Dutch lunch and smoker at the McAdoo Hotel tendered by the Local Board of Fire Underwriters of Greensboro.

A feature of Thursday morning's session will be an address by State Insurance Commissioner Jas. R. Young on "Fire Insurance Conditions in North Carolina; the State and Her Citizens; the Companies and Their Agents." This will be followed by new business, report of committees, open discussion, selection of next meeting place, election of officers, following which the association will adjourn sine die.

RICKMERS TOWED AWAY.

Merritt, Chapman Tugs Carrying Disabled Vessel to Newport News.

Two powerful sea-going tugs, the Relief and I. J. Merritt, of the Merritt, Chapman Wrecking Company, arrived in port Sunday and yesterday cleared with the German steamer Ellen Rickmers in tow for Newport News, Va., where she will undergo repairs at the shipyard.

The tugs passed out with the steamer yesterday shortly after noon. The Relief came from New York and the R. J. Merritt from Norfolk; they are two of the most powerful tugs on the Atlantic coast, both equipped with wireless and modern in every respect. The steamer Ellen Rickmers will go on the railway at Newport News, where a new rudder will be placed. The Rickmers was damaged by going ashore down the river some four weeks ago.

NOW A GREAT-GRANDFATHER.

Mr. William H. Chadbourn Receiving Congratulations of Friends.

Looking as bright and chipper as a "three-year-old", Mr. William H. Chadbourn was wearing the expansive smile that wouldn't come off yesterday. That was the effect; now the cause. A telegram yesterday morning from St. Paul, Minn., conveyed to him the intelligence, that way out there in the West he had just become the proud possessor of a great-grandson. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Chadbourn and the mother and little son are doing well. To think of Mr. Chadbourn as a great-grandfather is entirely foreign to one of his youthful appearance and the remarkably active life which he has led all these many years. The congratulations are indeed his.

TRAMP TOWING CROSBY.

Schooner in Distress on Carolina Coast Spoken by Tug Relief.

The tug Relief which arrived from New York Sunday to thow the steamer Ellen Rickmers to Newport News, Va., spoke the distressed schooner Mary L. Crosby off Cape Hatteras, late Saturday. The schooner partly dismasted and leaking at that time was in tow of a tramp steamer bound North.

It was the opinion among tug boat masters here that the Merritt, Chapman tugs would respond to the wireless message sent from the steamer Creole, of the Southern Pacific Line, and thought it useless to send Wilmington tugs. The tramp steamer will carry the schooner to her destination.

A message asking assistance was received here Saturday afternoon, but at that time the schooner was in tow of the steamer. The Crosby is bound from Charleston to New York with cargo.

THE LATE CAPT. F. W. ORTMANN

News of His Death Received With Profound Sorrow in City—Funeral Yesterday Afternoon—His Long Residence Here.

The city edition of the Star on Sunday carried briefly the sad announcement of the death of Capt. F. W. Ortmann, which occurred at 3:25 o'clock the same morning at his home, No. 104 North Fifth street, this city, after a lingering illness following a stroke of paralysis. The news of the death was received with profound sorrow by the hosts of friends of Capt. Ortmann and to the bereaved ones were extended the sincere sympathy of the community.

He was born in Herford, Westphalia, Germany, Nov. 19th, 1836, and came to this country when quite a young man locating at Charleston, S. C. At the outbreak of the civil war, he cast his lot with the Southern Confederacy and participated in the great struggles of that conflict from the beginning to the end of the war, enlisting in the 25th South Carolina Regiment under Col. Simonton, this regiment being a part of Hocutt's Brigade. Four brothers were members of the same company and all served their country most faithfully and well. After the war Capt. Ortmann came to Wilmington and for 35 years was engaged in business here, enjoying the confidence, respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. He was a devoted member of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Christian Association of the congregation, member of the Howard Relief Club, Cape Fear Camp of Veterans, Germania Lodge, K. of P., of which he was for many years master exchequer, and was also connected with a number of other organizations in the business community.

Capt. Ortmann was married during his young manhood to Miss Carolina Deaumeland and to this union there are surviving Mr. F. W. Ortmann, Mr. Henry Ortmann and Misses Elise and Carrie Ortmann to whom the sympathy of many friends is extended.

The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon from the family residence at 4 o'clock by Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Church, and the remains were laid to rest in the Confederate uniform of gray, so proudly and honorably worn by Capt. Ortmann during his long life. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

SUPERIOR COURT YESTERDAY

Slow Progress Being Made on the Gregg Damage Suit—Plaintiff Rests Case—To Jury Tomorrow Perhaps.

Superior Court is still engaged in the trial of the case of Mrs. Susan M. Gregg, administratrix, against the City of Wilmington and Mr. James F. Woolvin, an action for $25,000 alleged damages for the killing of Mr. E. M. Gregg about a year and a half ago, and it looks now as if it will be some time tomorrow afternoon before the case is given to the jury. Slow progress was made yesterday.

With the examination yesterday morning of Messrs. I. W. Cooper, L. B. Rogers and R. H. Pickett, all brokers, who testified to the earning capacity of the late Mr. Gregg, the plaintiff rested its case. Motions to nonsuit were lodged by both ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, of counsel for the city, and A. G. Ricaud, of counsel for Mr. Woolvin. Mr. Bryan argued that it had not been shown that the city was nigligent and further, that in another view of the matter, the deceased was guilty of contributory negligence, in that he knew the pile of brick was there and could have escaped any risk by using the opposite side of the street. He said that the case was parallel with a number of others in which the Supreme Court held that there was contributory negligence. Mr. Ricaud argued that his client had not been connected in the slightest with the case. He also argued that the deceased was guilty of contributory negligence. The motion was overruled by Judge Cooke and the defendants excepted.

Examination of witnesses for the defendants was then begun, the first witness being Mr. B. H. Stephens, the contractor, who testified to the effect that he had had the contract for drawing the plans for the Woolvin building, in front of which the accident occurred, and superintending the tearing down and construction work. He testified that he was to get 10 per cent of the cost; that Mr. Woolvin furnished the money for the materials, but that the workmen were hired and discharged by the witness' foreman. Mr. Stephens said that the contract he had with Mr. Woolvin had been reduced to writing and had been sent by a messenger to Mr. Woolvin, but he did not know whether or not it was ever signed by Mr. Woolvin. Mr. Woolvin testified that he did not receive the contract referred to nor did he know that it was to be reduced to writing. In the controversy between counsel for the city and Mr. Woolvin regarding the admissibility of testimony bearing on the contract, Judge Cooke ruled in favor of the city. Court took a recess for dinner after the examination of Mr. Stephens.

At the afternoon session several other witnesses for the city were examined and court took a recess until today in the midst of the testimony of Mr. Woolvin. He will conclude his testimony this morning, after which probably several other witnesses will be introduced for the defendant, Mr. Woolvin.

COUNTY TAX LEVY IS MADE

Commissioners in Regular Monthly Session Yesterday Afternoon—Work Largely Routine—Rate for Schools.

The Board of County Commissioners was in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon, but aside from making the tax levy for the ensuing fiscal year, the business transacted was largely of a routine character. The tax rate remains the same as last year, with the exception the property rate is increased three cents and poll tax from 36 to 45 cents for schools, to meet the increased needs in the several districts as recommended by the Board of Education. The Commissioners demurred to the increase and recommended a conference between the two boards, but owing to the short time, this could not be had and it was mandatory upon the Commissioners to make the increased levy, which was done. The Board was in session but a short time, a number of matters being referred to the Finance Committee which meets Thursday.

The Board met shortly after 3 o'clock with Chairman McEachern and Commissioners Divine, Metts and Montgomery in attendance. R. M. Capps was excused from poll tax on account of physical disability. Petition of Clayton Giles and others asking that neighborhood road running from the shell road to Bradley's Creek station be improved was referred to the Road Committee. Upon petition of Mr. D. J. Fergus and others, Mrs. Hattie Piner, of Masonboro, was allowed $2.50 per month on the outdoor poor list. T. B. Cox, a Confederate veteran, was allowed to peddle without license under the State law governing such cases.

The Superintendent of Health reported three cases of smallpox, three of diphtheria, two of scarlet fever, one of pneumonia and 20 of typhoid fever during May; 147 patients treated in the office and five at their homes. There has been very little acute sickness in the camp, three cases of fever, none in the other institutions.

Application through the Salvation Army for relief of Mrs. Martha Costin, of Wrightsboro, was referred to the superintendent of health for investigation and report.

Clerk F. T. Skipper, of the Recorder's Court, reported fines of $106.80, and costs of $240.15 during May. Thirteen were sentenced to the county roads and eight to the farm. Supt. H. C. Blake, of the County Home, reported 15 convicts and 15 inmates in custody on June 1st. The report of Supt. W. H. Shearin, of the convict camp was received and referred to the Finance Committee.

Chairman McEachern read the correspondence that has passed between the Board of County Commissioners and Board of Education relative to an increase of the tax rate for public schools from 12 to 15 cents per $100 valuation on property and from 36 to 45 cents on the poll. The letter from the Board of Education has previously been published, the increase being desired because of the need of increased facilities for accommodating all the children of school age in New Hanover county. The reply of the Commissioners is as follows:

"The Chairman and Members, County Board of Education, New Hanover County, Wilmington, N. C.

"Gentlemen:—I am directed by the Board of Commissioners to acknowledge yours of May 25th, instructing them to make special school tax 15 cents, in lieu of the 12 cents levy of last year. While we recognize that it is mandatory, under the law, to levy whatever you instruct, up to the maximum rate allowed, of 15 cents, still, they respectfully call your attention to the following facts:

"The school fund received from July 1st, 1909, from all sources (see detailed statement below) $41,836.05. This included liquor tax of $5,955.07 for last half of 1908. When the special tax was advocated, it was argued that special tax was needed to offset the lost liquor tax. This amounted, in round figures, to $12,000. Last year, the special tax of 12 cents produced $18,130.21. This, with all receipts from July 1st, 1909, to June 1st, 1910, amounted to $53,118.99, or $11,282.94 more than preceding year, which latter year included half year's liquor tax.

"We have no inclination to handicap the schools of our county, but we do advocate economy in every branch, as the commissioners are expected to keep expenses down, and consequently the taxes, as low as possible. We deem it our duty to call your attention to school fund receipts for past two years, and ask that you use your best efforts to keep tax levy down, not only as an encouragement to prospective enterprises, but for the benefit of the people. Last year the amount received for the schools of the county equalled 40 per cent. of all the taxes levied and collected for the county.

"We beg to submit the above, and would like to have your further consideration in the matter.

"Yours very truly,

"D. McEACHERN.

"Chairman Board of County Commissioners."

Attached was a comparative statements as follows:

General poll and property tax, $30,272.02; special poll and property tax, $18,130.21; fines and forfeitures from Recorder's Court, $2,955.87; from criminal and magistrates' courts, $223; sale school property, $200; cash from tuition, $20; State apportionment, $1,317.39. Total, $53,118.99.

The chairman read a letter from Chairman J. O. Carr, of the County Board of Education, stating that on account of being engaged in Superior Court he had been unable to take the matter up with other members of the Board or to consider it himself, and would not be able to do so until after the trial of the case of Gregg against city of Wilmington is completed.

Members of the Board regretted that a conference with the Board of Education was not possible before taking action on the levy, which is required to be made by law the first Monday in June, and several expressed themselves as in favor of having the school law changed so as to give the Board of County Commissioners concurrent jurisdiction with the Board of Education in making this levy inasmuch as the first named board is held responsible for the increased rate. However, the present law being mandatory upon the Commissioners upon recommendation of the Board of Education, the increased rate for schools was included in the levy, which is as follows:

General Fund	23 2-3
Hospital	6 1-3
Roads	4
Special School Tax	15
Total for County	49
For State purposes	21
General School Tax	18
Pensions	4
Total	43
Total Levy	92

The total poll tax is $2.76 and the county license tax is made the same upon all subjects except where prohibited by legislative enactment, as is imposed for State purposes.

KENTUCKIAN'S ILLNESS BAFFLED THE DOCTORS

The above likeness of J. W. O'Lee was taken since his restoration to health a few months ago. Mr. O'Lee is a member of the firm of The Nicholson-Foley Company, furniture dealers and funeral directors at Corbin, Ky. His quick recovery is a great surprise to his friends. In telling about his illness Mr. O'Lee says: "For eight months I was a physical wreck. I did not know what was the matter with me, and judging from the results of their treatment, the four doctors I employed at different times knew no more than I did myself. At any rate, they failed to help me. I was terribly reduced in flesh, and had no strength at all. I could neither eat nor work. I was extremely nervous, and greatly depressed in spirit. I had almost reached that conclusion that I never would get well.

"I was urged to try Cooper's New Discovery, but as I had no faith in patent medicines, I hesitated to do so. Finally, I want to a drug store in Lexington and bought a bottle. The promptness with which it helped me was astonishing, and I continued the treatment. Gradually I gained strength My appetite returned, and I began to sleep well at night.

"In a few weeks I was feeling like a different man, and my recovery was more rapid. Three bottles of Cooper's New Discovery made me well. It has been two months since I stopped using the medicine, and I never felt better in my life. I now weigh 202 pounds."

Cooper's New Discovery is a remarkable medicine. We are agents for it in this community.—J. H. Hardin.

The Swine or the Flower?

Ah me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty,
Wherein a drove of wallowing swine were barred,
Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye;
Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of lard!"
I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first
One glistening mass of roses pure and white,
With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed;
And, as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
The summer breeze, that cooled that Southern scene,
Whispered, "Behold the source of COTTOLENE!"

ALDERMAN HINTON RESIGNED

No Special Reason Given for His Action—Board Declined to Accept. Changes in Near-Beer Ordinance—Other Notes.

Alderman J. H. Hinton surprised his colleagues last night when at the close of a two and a half hour session of the Board of Aldermen, he tendered his resignation as a member from the Second Ward. He gave no reason at the time, but was heard to say to friends after the adjournment of the board that he did not think there was any possibility of the aldermen accomplishing anything during the next six or eight months and, in effect, that the time spent at the meetings would be wasted. The aldermen, by unanimous vote, declined to consider his resignation last night and he continues, therefore, as a member of the body.

Most of the time of the session was taken up in making changes in the near-beer ordinance designed to regulate such establishments. Requests for changes were so numerous that Alderman Willard was prompted to move that the entire matter be reconsidered, and give the Aldermen time to ascertain just what they do want with reference to near-beer places. His motion did not meet with a second, however. Among other things the board adopted a resolution enlarging the office of the city physician; created the office of city detective; changed the near-beer restriction ordinance so as to allow bona fide restaurants holding near-beer licenses to sell the beverage during the day time without forcing them to close the eating department during the hours prescribed in the ordinance within a certain district; adopted a resolution authorizing the sale of $100,000 worth of bonds for a sewerage system; granted three additional near-beer licenses, granted a number of licenses to conduct restaurants and also refused a number of restaurant licenses.

The board was called to order at 8 o'clock by Mayor MacRae, who presided, with a full board present. Alderman Bonitz arose to a point of order and stated that as Alderman Willard was not present at the meeting when the Aldermen decided to abolish the scavenger contract system it was not right nor legal for him to move reconsideration, as was done at the last meeting, and that the action upon the motion should not stand. The Mayor held that as the board had passed upon the matter of the contract system it was ended. The minutes were then adopted over the protest of Alderman Bonitz.

Communications and reports were then read by City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler, the first communication being from Dr. Akerman, city physician, who reported the burning of one of the buildings at the pest house and called attention of the board to the necessity of keeping a man in charge of the place all the time. The report of City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler for the month of May showed that on May 1st there was a balance in the treasury of $64,047.70; total receipts for the month, $7,108.45, making a grand total of $71,156.15; total disbursements, $22,112.49, leaving a balance June 1st of $49,043.66. The annual report showed that on June 1st, 1909, there was a balance of $57,739.14; receipts during the year ending May 31st, 1910, $204,675.61, making a grand total of $262,414.75; disbursements during year, $213,371.09, leaving a balance of $49,043.66.

Under the head of committee reports, Chairman Hall, of the Finance Committee, stated that the only report he had to make was with reference to the claim of Mr. W. H. Todd, who was injured by a fall from a bicycle some time ago and which was referred at the last meeting of the board to his committee, which has held several conferences with Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esq., counsel for Mr. Todd. Mr. Hall said that Mr. Meares wanted more than the committee felt like recommending. Ninety-eight cents was the amount the committee thought proper. City Attorney McClammy was asked about the claim and stated that he did not know anything of the merits of the case, but was persuaded to believe that Mr. Todd could recover only a small amount, if anything at all. Upon motion of Alderman Yopp the matter was referred back to the committee and the city attorney with power to act.

Alderman Bonitz, chairman of the Streets and Wharves committee, submitted his report for the year and that of Mr. R. O. Grant, superintendent of streets, showing in detail the amount of work done. In addition to cleaning the streets and removing therefrom 15,581 loads of trash and garbage, the street force hauled a considerable quantity of various materials for other departments of the city; laid terra cotta pipe for eight sand traps, removed the carcases of 16 dead horses from within the city; prepared ground and put down about 2,000 feet of brick sidewalk for abutting property owners, who furnished the brick for such work; put down a macadam sidewalk on Tenth, from Chesnut to Chesnut street, and placed a considerable quantity of curbing in position at different locations throughout the city. Alderman Bonitz stated that he had been offered $300 a year for the Princess street dock, the person making the offer agreeing to keep 30 feet of the wharf open at all times. The proposition was declined upon motion of Alderman Yopp, who took the position that the wharf had already been rented to Capt. J. W. Harper so far as the Aldermen are concerned. The request of the Street Commission, through Alderman Bonitz, that it be allowed to use the wharf behind the market house for storage of materials, was likewise refused, upon motion of Alderman Yopp.

Alderman Bonitz called the attention of the board to the necessity of an appropriation to make repairs to private sewer lines where the names of owners cannot be obtained, declaring that the public health was being endangered. After the reading of the report of the Sanitary Committee, of which Alderman Ellis is chairman, the same showing in detail the work done with three hands during the past year, Alderman Ellis spoke with reference to the appropriation Alderman Bonitz considered a necessity. He said that it was a fact that private sewers were in bad condition, but he did not think it right for the city to make the repairs. It had been his experience that no one claimed a broken or obstructed sewer until after it had been cleaned and put in good repair. In this connection Mayor MacRae said the ground was villainously poisonous in hundreds of places throughout the city of Wilmington and he knew of a number of cases of typhoid fever that had resulted from the broken and obstructed private sewers. He thought that the city should do something to remedy the condition.

Upon motion of Alderman Stone it was decided to enlarge the office of the city physician so as to make it encumbent upon him to visit the indigent sick. He suggested a salary of $1,500 a year. A case was called to his attention a few days ago where a poor woman needed a physician, but could get neither the city nor county physician. The motion of Alderman Stone also empowered the Sanitary Committee to take up the matter with the present city physician and ascertain whether or not he would serve in both positions, and go before the Board of Audit and Finance and urge concurrence.

Alderman Stone said he had requests for lights at Nutt and Walnut; Nutt and Grace; Orange and Water, in alley, between Market and Princess, and at Seventh and railroad, and upon motion he was instructed to go before the Board of Audit and Finance and ask for an appropriation to cover the cost of the lights.

Messrs. R. A. and W. L. Parsley were granted permission to erect a bridge across the street in front of their property at foot of Orange street, and the request for permission to erect a building on the wharf was also granted, subject, however, to the approval of the Building Inspector.

Alderman Hall said that he was opposed to near-beer in any form, but he thought a change should be made in the ordinance recently adopted so as to allow bona fide restaurants to keep their places of business open throughout the night and on Sundays if desired, regardless of whether they held near-beer licenses, provided near-beer was not sold during the hours prescribed in the ordinance. Alderman Willard said that if the board was going to reconsider any part of the ordinance, he would move that it be taken up as a whole. The matter was passed over for the time being but later in the meeting, upon motion of Alderman West, the board decided, by a vote of 6 to 4, to reconsider its former action with reference to near-beer and restaurants. Restaurants on Front, between Red Cross and Orange, on Market, between Water and Second, and Princess, between Front and Second, holding near-beer licenses may remain open all the time, provided no near-beer is sold from sun-down to sunrise and on Sundays, according to the amendment to the ordinance as drafted by Alderman Hall and adopted.

No action was taken on a petition of residents in the vicinity of Front and Princess asking that public hacks be not allowed to stand there at night. Chief of Police Williams stated that it had been decided to make the hackmen use another place. The ordinance of Alderman Bonitz, offered at the last meeting, prohibiting the running of public hacks between 1:30 and 4:30 A. M., was voted down.

Upon motion of Alderman Yopp, the board by a vote of 5 to 4, appropriated $1,000, or as much thereof as needed, to lay curbing in the centre of Third street, between Ann and Castle, and on Fifth, between Ann and Church.

Upon motion of Alderman Bonitz the office of city detective was created, the detective to be appointed by the Mayor and work under his direction, and $2,000 was appropriated, out of which the salary of the detective will be paid, the remainder to be used by the Mayor as he sees fit in enforcing the laws. Alderman West cast the only dissenting vote.

Alderman Stone called attention of the board to the importance of selling the remaining $100,000 worth of water works and sewerage bonds, so that the water and Sewerage Commission can begin the work of laying a new sewerage system. He made a motion that the bonds be offered for sale and, seconded by Alderman Yopp, it carried.

A request of Mr. Joe Schad for permission to lay a "turnout" near 15th and Princess streets, so he can put down a spur railroad track on his property to connect with the trolley line was referred to the Street and Wharves Committee with power to act.

The Mayor read a communication from Chief of Police Williams in which the chief asked for information relative to section 4 of the near-beer ordinance providing for only one entrance to near-beer places and calling attention of the board to the fact that several of the establishments of this kind have doors in the rear and also have a stairway leading to the second floor. Upon motion of Alderman Yopp the section was amended so as to leave no doubt of the meaning; that is the door opening on the street must be unobstructed and the door in the rear and a stairway leading to the second floor are not considered entrances. A provision was inserted that all fences in the rear of near-beer places must not be over five feet high.

Licenses to conduct near-beer saloons were granted as follows: Schutt Bros., 817 Bladen street; J. D. Dennis, 1120 North Fourth street; J. H. Mohr, 603 Red Cross street. There were no other applications for near-beer licenses.

Restaurant licenses were granted as follows: John Andrews, No. 16 1-2 North Second; Dixie Cafe, 117 Princess; Buck Hill, 620 South Seventh; Mary McClammy, 416 Nutt; D. D. Bizzell, No. 6 North Tenth; Jane Russ, No. 11 Market; Mary Campbell, 12th, between Market and Princess; J. G. Thomas, 608 McRae; R. F. Fergus, 115 1-2 South Front; Junction Restaurant, 105 Princess; Joe Hill, No. 6 Grace; G. C. Orr, 11th and Market.

Licenses were refused the following: Eastern Star Hall, Princess street; Lizzie Askins, Eighth and Nixon; B. Franco, Water and Market; C. A. Dulin, 117 North 11th; Clara Evans, No. 8 Water; Mary Samuels, Fourth, between Brunswick and Bladen; W. S. Mintz, Nos. 9 and 13 Dock; Mittie Hill, Seventh and Dawson; Willie Cobbs, No. 12 South Second.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN:—It seems to me among your claims as to the efficacy of Mexican Mustang Liniment you hardly give prominence enough to its wonderful curative power on inflamed and caked udder in cows. I have used it for two years in my stable and since I began its use have not had a case which was not relieved by a few applications. A thorough bathing of the udder with hot water followed by gentle and persistent rubbing in of the "Mustang" will, I believe, cure any case, leaving the teats in good order—unless suppuration has already begun. If all others in the dairy business knew this it would save much worry and loss. Respectfully,

MRS. A. I. YOUNG,
The Pines Dairy.

SHARP ADVANCE IN OLD CROP

Active and Exciting Day on the Cotton Market—Few Sellers Outside of Big Bull Traders—Gain From 5 to 28 Points.

New York, June 6.—There was a sensational advance in old crop months in the cotton market today as a result of urgent covering while there appeared to be few sellers outside of the bi gbull traders. New crop positions responded rather slowly to the near month strength, but the tone of the market was firm at the close and last prices showed a gain of from 5 to 28 points for the day.

The market opened steady at an advance of 5 points to a decline of 3 points, the old crop being higher on covering, while the new crop reflected disappointing cables and favorable weather conditions in the South. At first there was some little irregularity, with local operators showing a disposition to sell on the lower Liverpool cables and favorable crop advices but shortly after the opening near month shorts became urgent buyers and the market became active and excited. Before the advance was checked, July contracts had sold at 15.10, or 40 points above the closing figures of Satirday, while August had sold at 14.60, or 30 points net higher. The new crop meanwhile had a sympathetic advance of from 10 to 11 points but the buying of these positions were restricted by the good weather and reports of a further improvement in the condition of the crop. The demand from shorts became less urgent during the afternoon and prices sagged off from the best under realizing. Southern selling and local bear pressure, but after reacting to about 15.01 for July, firmed up again on renewed covering and bulls support. July closed at 15.08 and August at 14.50, or within 10 to 12 points of the top Liverpool was a big buyer of July and August here, presumably to undo straddles, but the chief demand seemed to come from Wall Street shorts. The strength of July naturally revived the rumors of an end-season squeeze and all sorts of estimates were circulating in the trade as to the size of the short interest in July and August. It seems to be the impression that whatever the size of the interest, it is of a more speculative character than that uncovered by the bulls in May. Southern spot markets were unchanged to half a cent higher.

Receipts at the ports today 2,663 bales against 6,489 last week and 9,730 last year; for the week 35,000 bales against 36,463 last week and 51,323 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 902 bales against 3,425 last year.

Spot quiet and steady, 30 points advance; middling uplands 15.20; middling gulf 15.45; sales 13,634. Futures opened steady and closed firm.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

AN ADVANCE IN COTTON.

Conditiaons on the Market Yesterday —Good Weather Reports.

New York, June 6.—Weather over Sunday was generally favorable being warm with scattered showers over the belt generally. The short interest, however, in July and August continued very uneasy and their attempts to cover together with some quiet bidding up from the leading longs brought a quick advance in our market until July sold over a cent a pound above the low level reached on the publication of the government's report last Thursday. Here the acute demand seemed satisfied for the time being and the market lapsed into dullness for the rest of the day. The continued good weather has made the local feeling very bearish as regards the new crop and the Fall options lagged all day under general scattered fore the long interest in July and Auselling. As we have pointed out begust appears to control the position here and we see little chance of the difference between the two crops becoming narrow until the July interest has covered.

TH EGRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, June 6.—Active buying of wheat here by foreigners today emphasized the significance of higher prices in Europe. Liberal orders to purchase were also received from the Northwest and the Southwest. Not only wheat, but every one of the leading staples scored a subtle advance. Wheat closed 1 3-8 to 1 3-4c up; corn 1 3-8 to 1 1-2; oats 5-8 to 3-4, and provisions 30 to 65.

VIOLENT DAY FOR STOCKS

New Levels for the Year on the Stock Exchange Yesterday—Conference in Washington Had Effect on the Market.

New York, June 6.—Prices of stocks broke violently to new low levels for the year in the late session of the stock exchange today after nervous and feverish fluctuations up and down for most of the session. The break was co-incident with the circulation of reports that the railroad presidents, who have gone to Washington to protest against the government's action to enjoin Western trunk line freight rates, had given up hope of securing any modification of the intended couse of the law officers of the administration.

At one time the level had been lifted one to two points over the closing levels of Saturday quite generally. The excessive dullness into which the trading fell at the advance argued an unwillingness on the part of buyers to follow the rise and indicated a weak undertone, but it was hoped that the hesitation was due simply to a desire to await the outcome of the White House conference.

News of the crops and money conditions were taken to account partly for the better tone of the early dealings.

To contrast with the prevailing tone in Wall street, there was quoted a leading Chicago banker as saying:

"Railroad earnings are satisfactory and the disposition of many roads to enlarge dividends in spite of their claims that higher freight rates are necessary in order to cover expenses of increased wage allowance shows that the country's transportation industry is in fairly prosperous condition."

News of the sale abroad of $25,000,000 Southern Pacific bonds was not generally known in Wall street before the market closed. No attention was paid to anything but the expected conference at Washington. After breaking from 2 to over 5 points, prices rebounded 1 to 3 points with the demand from the bears to cover shorts and closed in considerable disorder.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,854,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks today 969,100 shares.

VERIFY IT

The Proof Is In Wilmington Almost at Your Door.

The public statement of a Wilmington citizen is in itself strong proof for Wilmington people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is a Wilmington citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved sick kidneys and now states the cure was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

R. A. Biddle, 606 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "About four years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney trouble and they did me so much good that I gave a testimonial for publication, recommending them. I have had no occasion to take this remedy since then, as the cure has been permanent. I am willing that my testimonial be published again. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills a great many times and know of several people who have been greatly benefited by them."

MARRIED AN ASHEVILLE WOMAN

Romance Attended Second Venture of O. Henry.

Asheville, June 6.—William Sidney Porter, who died in New York today spent much of his time in this city. He was prominently connected with the Worth family in the eastern part of the State. As a young man he served as a drug clerk in Greensboro and when just past his majority went to Texas where he engaged in ranching and commercial pursuits. He drifted to Houston and began his newspaper work, and also began writing his short stories of the plains which immediately attracted attention. His first wife died after he went to New York.

While writing under the nom de plume of O. Henry, his work attracted the attention of Miss Sarah Lindsay Coleman of this city, who herself was writing under the nom de plume of Sarah Lindsay. Inquiries made of her publishers revealed the fact that they were old friends, having had a youthful attachment while he was still a schoolboy in Greensboro. This old attachment resulted in their marriage in this city about two years ago.

Mr. Porter spent the past nine months here working on a new play and intended to return as soon as he had made some arangements for placing it, it being his intention to make Asheville his permanent home.

New York, June 5.—William Sidney Porter, known best under his pen name of "O. Henry" as the writer of short stories, died today at Polyclinic hospital. He underwent an operation last Friday and never rallied. The nature of his ailment was not made known. Mrs. Porter, who had been in South Carolina, was summoned by telegraph but did not arrive here until after her husband's death.

Mr. Porter was born in Greensboro, N. C., 46 years ago and began his journalistic career on The Houston Post. Before he had been cowboy, sheep herder, druggist and an extensive traveler. The general public knew little of his private life for he shunned interviews and was content to be known merely through his writings as "O. Henry."

He had been in poor health for some time but it was not thought his illness was serious. Wednesday he dined with friends and seemed in his usual spirits. Friday night he was taken ill and removed to a hospital. A minor operation was performed but up to within an hour of his death today it was thought he would recover. Derangement of both liver and kidneys, however, proved more deep seated than had been thought and he sank rapidly.

The burial will be at Asheville, N. C.

The new Catholic Church at Hamlet has been completed and will be dedicated to the worship of God Sunday, July 3rd, at 10:30 o'clock by Rt. Rev. Bishop Haid, O. S. B. It is expected that a number from Wilmington will attend the service and Catholic priests from various parts of the State will be present. In the evening a mission or revival will begin. The eloquent missionary priest, Rev. Thos. G. Waters, of Richmond, Va., will preach a series of sermons, assisted by the Rev. T. F. Price, editor of Truth, Nazareth, N. C.

Larceny Charged in Two Cases.

Charged with larceny in two separate warrants William Foster, colored, was arrested yesteruay afternoon by Contable Savage. One warrant charges the larceny of a pistol from the steamer "Atlantic City" last Saturday and the other with the larceny of some brass from the Hammer Lumber Company yesterday morning. When the cases were called in Justice Harriss' court yesterday afternoon examination was waived and the defendant bound over to Recorder's court. L. Clayton Grant, Esq., represents the defendant.

Hinton, W. Va., June 1.—A fast freight train on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad plunged into New river at Fayette station, 40 miles west of here, tonight. John Hoback, one of the oldest engineers in the road's service, and a brother-in-law of Superintendent Carey, of the Chesapeake & Ohio, was killed. George Grook, fireman, and Charles Anderson, brakeman, were fatally hurt. A low joint in the track is supposed to have derailed the train.

Lexington, Ky., June 1.—Henry S. Barker, chief justice of the Court of Appeals, of Kentucky, accepted the presidency of the State University of Kentucky, succeeding James K. Patterson, the oldest college president in point of service in America.

MRS. DOXEY ACQUITTED.

Found Not Guilty of Murder of William J. Erder at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., June 3.—Mrs. Dora Elizabeth Doxey was found not guilty tonight by the jury which heard the evidence against her on a charge of murdering William J. Erder with arsenic.

The verdict was returned after almost nine hours deliberation. Judge Grimm at once discharged the defendant. Mrs. Doxey wept hysterically as her acquittal was announced.

The charges against Dr. Loren B. Doxey, who was charged jointly with his wife with the murder of Erder, will come up for trial within the next two weeks.

In 1895 the acquitted woman was married to Robert L. Downing, of Joy, Ill. Dr. Loren Doxey was the family physician and attended her four children who died. She was married to Doxey in Burlington, Iowa, in August, 1906, after Downing had divorced her.

Mrs. Doxey came to St. Louis in April, 1909, at the time she was alleged to have married Erder, who died July 10th, 1909.

Miss Kate Erder, a sister, caused her arrest in Columbus, Neb., on November 14th, on the charge of poisoning Erder. Grand jury indictments were returned December 17th, charging Dr. Doxey and Mrs. Doxey with murder in the first degree. Mrs. Doxey denied giving Erder arsenic and said she was not married to him. She pleaded that Dr. Doxey had made her a morphine eater thus accounting ofr her conduct.

JEFFRIES DISAPPOINTING.

Visitors Waited to See Him in Boxing Ring Yesterday.

Ben Lomond, Cal., June 4.—Much to the disappointment of visitors, Jim Jeffries allowed his fondness for mountain climbing to lead him away from the boxing ring today, although he had previously planned to do nine rounds, three with each of his sparring partners. When the time for the sparring came it was discovered that Jeffries had set off up Mount Ben Lomond leaving Jim Corbett to attend to the entertainment of visitors.

Jeffries' faint followed a strenuous morning of training. He was in high spirits.

"I feel as strong as a bull", he said during a rest spell in the gymnasium, "I just want to tear things to pieces. I can feel myself rounding into the same condition that used to come to me in the old days."

The fighter did six miles on the road as a starter, then pounded the bag and labored at the weights as though he delighted in the work. He wound up by defeating Corbett two out of three at hand ball.

NEW ORLEANS THE PLACE.

Endorsed by Panama People for the World's Exposition.

Panama, June 4.—At a meeting today of Panama Americans and American business men principally from New Orleans, the proposal to select New Orleans as the location for the World's Panama Exposition was endorsed. The American delegation gave assurance of support for the Panama fair.

The Americans are visiting Panama for the purpose of bringing about closer relations between the isthmus and the South and to promote an exposition at New Orleans. They number about 50 and represent what is known as the progressive union. They have received unusual official courtesies and have been the guests of the isthmian canal commission, which furnished special cars so that they might inspect the canal. They will leave here Monday for Costa Rica.

THREE NEW BUILDINGS.

Additions to Manassas, Va., School for Colored Youth.

Manassas, Va., May 30.—In the presence of several thousand persons and with appropriate ceremonies, the cornerstones of three additional buildings to the Manassas school for colored youths were laid today, involving an expenditure of nearly $50,000. These are, the trades building at a cost of $30,000, the Berwin Hospital building at a cost of $15,000 and a new wing to Howland Hall, at a cost of $3,000. Other improvements contemplated make up the remainder of the $50,000 donation recently made by Andrew Carnegie, and others.

Mr. Carnegie's gift of $15,000 was for the general improvements to the institution and was based upon the condition that its authorities raise a like sum which, mainly through the efforts of Prof. Hill, principal of the school, has been substantially provided. John E. Berwind, of New York, has sent a draft for $15,000 towards the building of the hospital to be named for him, and Miss Emily Howland, of Sherwood, N. Y., contributed $3,000 for improvements to Howland Hall, built through her philanthropic contributions several years ago. Among those who delivered addresses today were Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York; O. G. Villard, president of the board of directors, and to whose efforts and contributions the success of the institution is largely due; Prof. Hill, principal of the school, and Prof. H. V. Roop, president of Eastern College.

Hampton, Va., June 6.—Colonel J. C. Phillips, who commanded the 13th Virginia regiment in the Civil War and burned the town of Hampton under orders from General Magruder, died here today.

A Lincoln woman paid a fine of $10 rather than tell her age to the census enumerator. A lot of women will think the secret was worth the price—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 6.—Judge Jonathan C. Boyle, one of the most widely known jurists of the West and an authority on mining law, died at his home here today from Bright's disease. He was 82 years old. He left a widow and four children, one of whom is Edwin Milton Boyle, the playwright.

Newport News, Va., June 6.—With the cadets of the United States Naval Academy aboard for their annual cruise, the battleships Iowa, Indiana and Massachusetts arrived in Hampton Roads this afternoon at 7 o'clock. The vessels will begin coaling tomorrow, preparatory to sailing for England Thursday.

Mr. Bryan says the next President will be a Democrat, a prediction that calls to mind the fact that Judge Harmon is really and truly a great Democrat.—Houston Post.

In Wadesboro a policeman has resigned his job to go into the near-beer business. That will make three of these institutions in the Gem of the Pee Dee, the license tax for each being $500, or just half the standard. Gastonia put the tax at $1,000. Two dealers paid it and had a carload of stuff at the depot, ready for the bung-starter.—Charlotte Chronicle.

It is a fair challenge that Champ Clark, the Democratic leader of the House, flings at Mr. Taft. The President has admitted in his speeches that the tariff on woolen goods should be reduced. Very well, says the leader of the minority; send a special message to Congress demanding a reduction in the woolen schedule, and if Chairman Payne will report the bill the Democrats will offer no amendments. That is a fair proposition. It disposes of the plea that the excesses of the Payne-Aldrich bill cannot be corrected without opening up the whole question of tariff revision again. The woolen schedule which Mr. Taft himself refuses to defend can be revised downward without touching another rate in the tariff act. If Mr. Taft is wise he will accept Mr. Clark's challenge and help give the American people cheaper clothing at once.—New York World.
